Definitions

[1] "Number of Students Who Began Program" means the number of students who began the program who are scheduled to complete the program within the reporting calendar year, and includes all the students who remained enrolled after their cancellation period.

[2] "Students available for Graduation" is the number of students who began the program minus the number of students who have died, been incarcerated, or called to active military duty.

[3] "Number of Graduates" is the number of students who completed the program within 100% of the published program length.

[4] "Completion Rate" is the number of 100% Graduates divided by the "Number of Students Available for Graduation".

[5] "150% Graduates" is the number of students who completed within 150% of the program length (includes on-time graduates).

[6] "150% Completion Rate" is the number of students who completed the program in the reported calendar year within 101-150% of the published program length divided by the "Number of Students Available for Graduation" in the published program length period.

[7] "Graduates available for employment" means the number of graduates minus the number of graduates unavailable for employment. "Graduates unavailable for employment" means the graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education in unaccredited or bureau-approved postsecondary institution.

[8] "Graduates Employed in Field" means graduates who are gainfully employed in a single position for which the institution represents the program prepares its graduates within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the period of employment must begin within six months of the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.

[10] "Number of Students Taking Exam" is the number of students who completed the program within 150% of the published program length and who took the exam in the reported calendar year for the first time.

[12] "Passage Rate" is calculated by dividing the number of students who passed the exam by the number of graduates who took the reported licensing exam.
